ACQ BURE AB IS MERGING WITH YUBICO AB: MERGED COMPANIES INTEND TO GO PUBLIC ON SWEDEN'S NASDAQ FIRST NORTH GROWTH MARKET

ACQ Bure AB ("ACQ"), a Swedish acquisition company (Special Purpose Acquisition Company) listed on Nasdaq Stockholm, and Yubico AB ("Yubico"), a leading provider of multi-factor cybersecurity solutions, have today signed a merger agreement and adopted a joint merger plan to combine ACQ and Yubico, whereby ACQ will merge with Yubico (the "Transaction") and change its name to Yubico AB (the "Combined Company").

Through its core invention, the YubiKey, Yubico solves the number one cybersecurity issue – use of stolen credentials. Yubico has had an exceptional organic growth journey since its inception; net sales have grown by a compounded annual growth rate ("CAGR") of 50% since 2016. In 2022, Yubico reached all-time high net sales of SEK 1,561 million with an operating profit of SEK 215 million. Mattias Danielsson, CEO of Yubico, will be the CEO of the Combined Company after completion of the Transaction. The Transaction is expected to be completed during the third quarter 2023, subject to, among other things, approval by the general meeting in ACQ and Yubico, respectively.

ACQ was established on the initiative of Bure Equity AB ("Bure") and listed on Nasdaq Stockholm in March 2021. In connection with the listing, SEK 3.5 billion was raised for the purpose of acquiring an unlisted company.

ACQ has now found an acquisition target that meets all the investment criteria that were set in connection with the establishment of ACQ and believes that Yubico has strong potential to create value for ACQ's shareholders over time. Yubico is a sustainable, high-quality company founded in Sweden, with a leading position in a rapidly growing market, with a strong customer offering and a competitive edge.

Transaction highlights:

- The Transaction values Yubico's shares at USD 800 million, corresponding to SEK 8,293 million^[4]. The merger consideration consists of cash and newly issued shares in ACQ, whereby 58% of the consideration will be paid in shares and 42% in cash to holders of shares of Yubico outstanding at the time of registration of the merger (other than Ineligible Foreign Holders (as defined below)). An eligible holder of shares in Yubico will receive 2.9 ACQ shares and SEK 208.0 in cash for each Yubico share held by such shareholder.^[5]
- The valuation of Yubico corresponds to an EV/Sales multiple of 5.2x^[6], which is considered in line with comparable cybersecurity peers.
- Upon completion of the Transaction, it is estimated that ACQ's current shareholders will hold approximately 40.3%^[7] of the shares and votes in the Combined Company.
- Yubico's preliminary bookings (total contract value) during the period January – March 2023 amounted to SEK 350.0 million compared to SEK 304.6 million during the same period 2022, corresponding to 15% growth (3.0% adjusted for change in foreign currency). As a result of the Transaction, ACQ intends to publish certain additional financial information relating to Yubico for the period January – March 2023 on 4 May 2023.
- In accordance with the SPAC rules of the Nasdaq Main Market Rulebook for Issuers of Shares, the non-conflicted board of directors^[8] of ACQ has decided to propose that the shareholders of ACQ approve the Transaction at an extraordinary general meeting to be held on or around 20 June 2023.
- Certain large shareholders of ACQ, i.e., Bure, AMF Tjänstepension and AMF Fonder, the Fourth Swedish National Pension Fund, SEB-Stiftelsen, and Stefan Persson & family that currently together hold approximately 58% of the shares and votes in ACQ have undertaken to vote in favor of the Transaction at the extraordinary general meeting of ACQ. Further, SEB Funds and Lannebo Funds, that currently together hold approximately 9% of the shares and votes in ACQ, have expressed their intention to vote in favor of the Transaction at the extraordinary general meeting of ACQ. Approval of the Transaction, including the joint merger plan, requires support by at least two-thirds of the votes cast and the shares represented at the extraordinary general meeting.

- Shareholders of Yubico representing more than 80% of the total outstanding shares of Yubico are either parties to the merger agreement entered into by ACQ and Yubico or have by other means approved and committed to support the Transaction. Pursuant to a customary drag-along provision under the existing shareholders' agreement amongst each of the shareholders of Yubico, the remaining shareholders of Yubico will be deemed to have consented to the Transaction.
- In aggregate, up to a total of 51,759,560 ACQ shares will be issued as merger consideration, assuming that all outstanding and, at the time of completion of the Transaction, vested warrants in Yubico are exercised prior to the completion of the Transaction. Under the same assumption, up to a total of SEK 3,716,254,256 will be paid in cash as merger consideration.[9]
- The non-conflicted board of directors of ACQ has obtained a fairness opinion from Svenska Handelsbanken AB, pursuant to which, subject to the assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the merger consideration valuing Yubico at USD 800 million is fair from a financial point of view for ACQ and its shareholders.
- After completion of the Transaction, the five largest shareholders of the Combined Company are expected to be Bure, Yubico co-founder Stina Ehrensvärd, AMF Tjänstepension and AMF Fonder, Andreessen Horowitz and the Fourth Swedish National Pension Fund.
- Bure, which today holds approximately 15.3% of the shares in Yubico (on a fully diluted basis) through Bure Growth AB ("Bure Growth") and 20.0% of the shares in ACQ, will be the largest shareholder in the Combined Company with a holding of approximately 17.4% of the shares and votes. Bure will also hold 4,200,000 sponsor warrants in the Combined Company, which can be exercised for subscription of shares no earlier than 1 April 2026 and no later than 1 April 2031.
- Patrik Tigerschiöld, currently chairman of the board of directors in ACQ, is intended to become chairman of the board of directors in the Combined Company.
- ACQ's board of directors has, together with Yubico's board of directors, considered appropriate financial targets for the Combined Company and have agreed on the following targets in the long-term (within 5 years): annual growth in bookings (order intake) of 25% on average, and 20% EBIT margin.
- Following completion of the Transaction, the Combined Company is expected to have a strong financial position which exceeds the current net cash position in Yubico.
- In connection with the Transaction, ACQ intends to change its listing venue from Nasdaq Stockholm (Main Market) to Nasdaq First North Growth Market. The completion of the Transaction is subject to, among other conditions, approval by ACQ's and Yubico's respective extraordinary general meetings, and approval by Nasdaq Stockholm of the Combined Company's application for listing on Nasdaq First North Growth Market. The Transaction is expected to be completed during the third quarter 2023.

• Shareholders in ACQ voting against the Transaction will be able, subject to certain limitations, to request that their shares in ACQ are redeemed. Not more than 10% of the total number of shares issued by ACQ at the time of the extraordinary general meeting that is to resolve upon the Transaction may be redeemed. In order to achieve a suitable cash position in the Combined Company, depending on the outcome of the share redemption procedure, and to secure its obligation to effect cash payments to certain shareholders resident in certain foreign jurisdictions (including the United States) (the "Ineligible Foreign Holders") in connection with the Transaction, ACQ intends to resolve upon one or several directed share issues at a time or times of its choosing.

Henrik Blomquist, CEO of ACQ, commented:

"I am pleased to announce this proposed merger between ACQ and Yubico, which meets all investment criteria communicated when we listed ACQ in 2021. Yubico is a trusted global brand in cybersecurity with a unique blue-chip customer base and is led by a strong management team with a proven track record of profitable growth. By listing Yubico through ACQ, we create a solid foundation for the company to continue its successful growth journey and create value for all our shareholders."

Stina Ehrensvärd, co-founder of Yubico, commented:

"When Jakob Ehrensvärd and I founded Yubico in Stockholm 16 years ago, our vision was to make secure logins easy and accessible to everyone. Today, we are proud and humbled to have built and established a global gold standard for strong authentication. Today, our technology protects access for the world's largest enterprises, critical government infrastructures, human rights organizations, and millions of individuals around the world.

I am excited that Mattias Danielsson recently transitioned to Yubico's CEO. He has been my trusted co-worker and top adviser for 13 years and he and the rest of the team are well positioned to lead the company through this next phase.

I am continuing to support Yubico's development as a member of the board and I am working to increase awareness on cybersecurity in my recent role as Yubico's Chief Evangelist."

Mattias Danielsson, CEO of Yubico, commented:

"I am honored and thrilled by the opportunity to lead Yubico as the company prepares to go public through the merger with ACQ. We see continuous revenue growth, we are profitable, and the need for our technology and our position in the cybersecurity market has never been stronger.

I am looking forward to continuing my work with Yubico's founders and the rest of our team, who all are instrumental to our company's success. Becoming a listed company on the Swedish stock market will add opportunities to fuel our growth journey going forward as well as add a further quality stamp for our company. In addition, ACQ's strong and long-term shareholder base provides a solid foundation to continue our growth journey in a listed environment."

Caroline af Ugglas, on behalf of ACQ's board of directors, commented:

"The non-conflicted board members of ACQ have carefully considered the potential transaction with Yubico that we have been presented with. We have ensured that a due diligence of Yubico's operations has been conducted by professional external advisors, and we have obtained a fairness opinion from Handelsbanken that supports that the merger consideration valuing Yubico at USD 800 million is fair from a financial point of view for ACQ and its shareholders. In conclusion, we all consider Yubico to be an attractive investment for ACQ and therefore for its shareholders, and we recommend that ACQ's shareholders vote in favour of the transaction at the upcoming EGM."

Background and reasons

ACQ was listed on Nasdaq Stockholm in March 2021 and established on the initiative of Bure. In connection with the listing of ACQ on Nasdaq Stockholm in March 2021, SEK 3.5 billion was raised for the purpose of acquiring an unlisted company. ACQ has focused on finding a target company within sectors and markets where Bure is already active and has experience, and where the target company has potential to pursue long-term growth within its core business.

ACQ intends to change its listing venue to Nasdaq First North Growth Market in connection with the completion of the Transaction since it considers that Nasdaq First North Growth Market provides better conditions, compared to Nasdaq Stockholm (Main Market), to complete the Transaction in view of the contemplated timetable for the Transaction, and that it also is a suitable listing venue for the Combined Company at this current stage. The Combined Company intends to seek a re-listing on Nasdaq Stockholm (Main Market) within 12-18 months after completion of the Transaction.

Investment rationale

- Yubico is well positioned in a large and growing market underpinned by strong global sector trends, such as an increasing number of cyberattacks, cloud migration, digital transformation and larger investments in cybersecurity which drive demand for Yubico's solutions. The underlying market is expected to grow by approximately 14% annually between 2021 and 2027 according to IDC[10].
- Yubico's unique, highly differentiated value offering combines the highest level of security with ease of use. Yubico has sold over 22 million keys to some of the world's largest companies, with zero known successful hacking attempts to date.
- Yubico has a remarkable customer base which spans across several sectors and includes some of the largest global technology companies.
- Yubico has shown rapid organic growth with a net sales CAGR of approximately 50% between 2016 and 2022. In recent years, Yubico's gross margin has been around 80%. After investing in the organization over the last few years, Yubico is once again profitable, and well-positioned to capitalize on the underlying sector trends, its unique value offering and its strong customer base

- Yubico has a proven growth strategy which, inter alia, is focused on expanding the current customer base by increasing the number of users and areas of use, expanding to customers' customers and third-party suppliers, landing new customers across all industry verticals, and entering new authentication adjacencies.
- Yubico has an experienced management team with deep industry knowledge, and several members of management have been with Yubico since the first years. Many of Yubico's employees come from global leading IT companies, with extensive experience in technology-focused business development.

Description of the Combined Company

Business overview

Yubico is a global cybersecurity company headquartered in Stockholm, Sweden, providing advanced authentication solutions that prevent account takeovers. Yubico's overarching mission is to make the internet more secure for everyone by removing the root cause of most cybersecurity intrusions; stolen credentials. These cause 9 out of 10 cybersecurity intrusions, often through so called phishing attacks. [11] Yubico's core product, the YubiKey, is a multi-factor authentication (MFA) hardware token ensuring that only authorized users have access to sensitive accounts and systems. The authentication solution encompasses an extensive portfolio of proprietary technologies, with production lines in Sweden and the United States. To date, YubiKeys have been sold and deployed in around 160 countries worldwide.

MFA solutions have existed for decades; however, traditional solutions have often been hard to use, expensive, and companies have had to compromise between security requirements and convenience for their employees. What makes Yubico unique is its value proposition of both high security and ease of use.

Yubico has been leading innovation in the advanced MFA space for one and a half decade. The work with creating and evolving the best and most innovative open standards for authentication solutions, software development kits (SDKs) and implementation of secure authentication, Yubico has become one of the most highly regarded companies in the sector.

The YubiKeys have been adapted to relevant government regulations, including the American Federal Information Processing Standard (FIPS) and the French/European Certification de Sécurité de Premier Niveau (CSPN). These certifications are also part of Yubico's work to lead open authentication standards. Thanks to the open standard strategy, YubiKeys are flexible and easy to use with virtually all computer and phone operating systems and the product has more than 800 verified partner integrations.

Yubico has established a unique track record where no accounts protected by YubiKeys are known to have been hacked to date. The YubiKey supports both modern and legacy systems, being compatible with multiple authentication protocols, including FIDO2/WebAuthn, Universal 2nd Factor (U2F), PIV/Smart Card, and One Time Password (OTP). This enables and makes it easier for enterprises with complex backends to implement the solution. The combination of open standard, an extensive integration database, support for multiple authentication protocols and a wide partner network allows for an almost universal fit for the YubiKey with enterprise system environments.

Yubico has achieved a distinctive position in the US technology sector with several of the major technology companies in the world, including Amazon, Google, and Microsoft, using YubiKeys to protect staff and sensitive information from cyberattacks. In the last few years Yubico has not only continued to grow its footprint across technology companies, but it has also been able to grow and diversify its customer base to other industry verticals, such as financial services, manufacturing, retail, governments and the wider public sector. As of the end of 2022, more than a quarter of all G2000[12] companies had deployed YubiKeys, to a varying degree, in their organizations.

Yubico's products and services are primarily sold to enterprises, but the YubiKey is an attractive proposition also for small to medium-sized businesses (SMBs) and security-conscious consumers. While large account enterprise sales are managed by the Yubico internal sales force, the consumer and SMB market is predominantly served at scale through e-commerce and a worldwide distributor and reseller network.

YubiKeys have historically only been sold against a one-time payment, also known as the perpetual basis, which gives the customer ownership of the product throughout its lifetime. Since 2020, Yubico also offers a subscription-based model, in which Yubico assumes a larger overall responsibility and retains ownership of the hardware. Since launch, the YubiKey subscription offering has grown to account for 15% of bookings in 2022, and the enterprise proposition includes an enterprise portal, YubiKey international delivery, support, extended warranty and professional services.

Yubico's sales team works continuously with attracting new clients in both existing and new markets, as well as expanding within existing accounts. Yubico has historically shown strong growth with existing customers, with a high degree of repurchase rates. For example, the average annual repurchase rate between 2017-2022 was 132% from the top 25 customers. As history has shown, many customers expand their use of YubiKeys from internal use to expanding the use to a larger part of the value chain, for example to vendors, consultants and its own customers. This extension of enterprise use cases beyond the internal organisation is a big opportunity for future growth and has the potential to become a major source of revenue.

Going forward, ACQ expects Yubico to benefit from structural market trends, Yubico's proven land and expand strategy as well as the company's ability to broaden its offering to enter new customer verticals and adjacent market segments, creating a solid foundation for Yubico to continue its successful scale-up journey. The management team, together with Yubico's approximately 390 employees, possess the desired capabilities to continue to scale and grow the business.

Recommendation by the board of directors of ACQ

The board of directors' process for evaluating the Transaction

Patrik Tigerschiöld and Sarah McPhee, board members of ACQ, have assessed that they have a conflict of interest in relation to the Transaction since they are board members of Bure, which is one of the largest shareholders in Yubico. ACQ's current CEO, Henrik Blomquist, has assessed that he has a conflict of interest in relation to the Transaction due to his position as CEO of Bure. None of Patrik Tigerschiöld, Sarah McPhee or Henrik Blomquist have participated, or will participate, in the board of directors' resolutions to approve of the Transaction or enter into the merger plan and the merger agreement, nor have they participated in the board of directors' deliberations regarding such resolutions.

Board members Caroline af Ugglas, Katarina Bonde and Eola Änggård Runsten, are not conflicted in relation to the Transaction, and are independent in relation to ACQ and ACQ's management.

The board's recommendation

References in this section to the board of directors refer to the board of directors, excluding conflicted board members. All non-conflicted board members are unanimous in their support of the Transaction.

The board of directors of ACQ is of the opinion that the Transaction is beneficial to ACQ and its shareholders, and considers the merger consideration to be fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of ACQ.

Further, the board of directors has obtained a fairness opinion from Svenska Handelsbanken AB, pursuant to which, subject to the assumptions and limitations therein, the merger consideration corresponding to USD 800 million is fair from a financial point of view for ACQ and its shareholders. The fairness opinion is attached to this press release in Appendix 3.

The board of directors has been presented with the results of legal, financial, tax and pension due diligence of Yubico, as well as a market study, before deciding to propose that the shareholders of ACQ approve the Transaction.

Recommendation by the board of directors of Yubico

The board of directors^[13] of Yubico is of the opinion that the Transaction is beneficial to Yubico and its shareholders, and considers the merger consideration to be fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Yubico.

Description of the Transaction

ACQ and Yubico have today signed a merger agreement and adopted a joint merger plan to combine ACQ and Yubico by way of a statutory merger under the Swedish Companies Act, whereby ACQ will absorb Yubico. The Transaction values Yubico's shares at USD 800 million, corresponding to SEK 8,293 million^[14]. The merger consideration consists of cash and newly issued shares in ACQ, whereby 58% of the consideration will be paid in shares and 42% in cash to holders of shares of Yubico outstanding at the time of registration of the merger (other than Ineligible Foreign Holders). An eligible holder of shares in Yubico will receive 2.9 ACQ shares and SEK 208.0 in cash for each Yubico share held by such shareholder.^[15]

In aggregate, up to a total of 51,759,560 ACQ shares will be issued as merger consideration, assuming that all outstanding and, at the time of completion of the Transaction, vested warrants in Yubico are exercised prior to the completion of the Transaction. Under the same assumption, up to a total of SEK 3,716,254,256 in cash will be paid as merger consideration.^[16] The aggregate amount and proportion of cash may be increased (and the aggregate amount and proportion of ACQ shares correspondingly decreased) to accommodate restrictions under applicable securities laws on the delivery by ACQ of share consideration to Ineligible Foreign Holders resident in certain foreign jurisdictions (including the United States). Unless ACQ and Yubico are satisfied that ACQ shares can be offered, sold and delivered in compliance with applicable securities laws, any Ineligible Foreign Holder will not receive ACQ shares but will instead receive the fair market value in cash (as determined by an independent expert) of those ACQ shares to which such Ineligible Foreign Holder would otherwise have been entitled pursuant to the merger plan.

Following completion, the Combined Company is expected to have a strong financial position which exceeds the current net cash position in Yubico.

There is a total of 2,404,129 outstanding warrants (Sw. teckningsoptioner) in Yubico, as well as stock options reflecting in all material respects the terms of the warrants, that have been issued under equity incentive plans implemented by Yubico to members of Yubico's executive management and other employees. The warrants have been issued under different series and the subscription price varies between SEK 142.5 and SEK 513.5 according to the terms and conditions for the relevant series. Holders of warrants and stock options that will have vested prior to the completion of the Transaction will be entitled to exercise their warrants and stock options to become shareholders and will be notified accordingly in accordance with the terms and conditions of the respective series of warrants and stock options.

Completion of the Transaction is conditional upon:

- i. approval of the merger plan by the shareholders of each of ACQ and Yubico at their respective general meetings that are intended to be held on or around 20 June 2023, including approval by the shareholders of ACQ of the issuance of ACQ shares that will form part of the merger consideration (see further below under "Extraordinary general meetings");
- ii. Nasdaq Stockholm having (i) resolved to de-list the shares in ACQ from Nasdaq Stockholm and (ii) admitted the shares in the Combined Company to be listed on Nasdaq First North Growth Market (see further below under "Listing on Nasdaq First North Growth Market");
- iii. any permits and approvals of regulatory authorities that are necessary for the Transaction having been obtained on terms containing no remedies, conditions or undertakings which in the opinion of ACQ's and Yubico's respective board of directors, acting in good faith, would have a material adverse effect on the business, competitive or financial position of the Combined Company following completion of the Transaction;
- iv. the merger not having been made in whole or in part impossible or materially impeded as a result of legislation, court rulings, decisions by public authorities or anything similar;
- v. the pre-merger undertakings made by ACQ and Yubico as set out below in the section "Pre-merger undertakings" not having been breached prior to the day of the registration of the merger with the Swedish Companies Registration Office in any manner which would result in a material adverse effect on the merger or the Combined Company; and
- vi. no change, matter or event or series of changes, matters or events having occurred that has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial position or operation, including sales, results, liquidity, equity ratio, equity or assets of Yubico or ACQ or the Combined Company, and as a result of which the other party cannot reasonably be expected to complete the merger.

If the conditions set out above have not been satisfied or waived and completion of the Transaction has not taken place on or before 31 October 2023, the merger will not be implemented and the merger plan shall cease to have any further effect, provided, however that the merger will only be discontinued and the merger plan shall only cease to have any further effect, to the extent permitted by applicable law, if the non-satisfaction is of material importance to the merger or the Combined Company. Each of ACQ and Yubico, respectively, reserve the right to jointly waive, in whole or in part, one, several or all of the conditions above, and shall, subject to applicable law, be entitled to jointly decide to postpone the last date for fulfillment of the conditions from 31 October 2023 to a later date.

Pre-merger undertakings

Each of ACQ and Yubico have undertaken, for the period from the date of the merger plan until the day of the registration of the merger with the Swedish Companies Registration Office, to carry on their respective businesses in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and not to, without the prior written consent of the other party, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, take any of the following actions:

- a) declare or pay any dividend or other distribution to shareholders or make any other transfer of value (Sw. värdeöverföring) as defined in Chapter 17, Section 1 of the Swedish Companies Act, except that ACQ may take actions to settle requests for redemption of shares from shareholders of ACQ who vote against the Transaction at the extraordinary general meeting in ACQ, in accordance with the Nasdaq Stockholm Main Market Rulebook for Issuers of Shares (the "Rulebook") and ACQ's articles of association;
- b) issue or create shares or other securities, except (i) for issuances of shares or other securities in Yubico under or relating to its incentive plans in order to enable the participants in such incentive plans to exercise their rights, (ii) for the issuance of shares in ACQ to be paid as share consideration in the Transaction, and (iii) that ACQ shall be allowed to resolve on directed issues of shares following the share redemption procedure in order to achieve a suitable cash position in ACQ, depending on the outcome of the share redemption procedure, and for purposes of securing its obligation to effect cash payments to Ineligible Foreign Holders in Yubico;
- c) acquire, sell or agree to acquire or sell, material shareholdings, businesses or assets;
- d) enter into or amend any material contracts or arrangements, or incur any material additional indebtedness other than in the ordinary course of operating its business; or
- e) amend the articles of association or any other constitutional documents, except that ACQ may amend its articles of association so to ensure that they are adapted to the Combined Company following completion of the Transaction.

Listing on Nasdaq First North Growth Market

ACQ will as soon as possible initiate a process to change listing venue from Nasdaq Stockholm (Main Market) to Nasdaq First North Growth Market, subject to the shareholders' approval of the Transaction at ACQ's and Yubico's general meetings, respectively. Nasdaq Stockholm's decision to approve a listing of the Combined Company's shares and the first day of trading in the Combined Company's shares on Nasdaq First North Growth Market is expected to occur during the third quarter 2023.

In connection with the listing process, ACQ will prepare a company description with information about the Combined Company, in accordance with the requirements set out in Nasdaq First North Growth Market's Rulebook. The company description is expected to be published on ACQ's website during the third quarter 2023.

Extraordinary general meetings

ACQ and Yubico will each convene an extraordinary general meeting, to be held on or around 20 June 2023, to resolve upon the approval of the Transaction, including the joint merger plan. The resolutions require support by at least two-thirds of the votes cast and the shares represented at the respective general meetings. A notice to the extraordinary general meeting in ACQ will be published by ACQ in May. Ahead of the extraordinary general meeting, and no later than 30 May 2023, ACQ will also publish an information brochure with more information on Yubico and the proposed Transaction.

In addition to the approval of the Transaction, the board of directors of ACQ will propose that the shareholders in ACQ (i) resolve to issue shares as consideration in the Transaction (see further above under "Description of the Transaction"), and (ii) authorize the board of directors to resolve to issue shares in directed issues in ACQ in order to achieve a suitable cash position in the Combined Company following completion of the Transaction, depending on the outcome of the share redemption procedure, and to secure its obligation to effect cash payments to Ineligible Foreign Holders in Yubico. The board of directors of ACQ will further propose that the shareholders resolve to make certain amendments to ACQ's articles of association, including to revise the name of the Combined Company to "Yubico AB".

The nomination committee of ACQ will present its proposal regarding the composition of the board of directors of the Combined Company in the notice to the extraordinary general meeting in ACQ.

Voting commitments

Certain large shareholders of ACQ, i.e. Bure, AMF Tjänstepension and AMF Fonder, the Fourth Swedish National Pension Fund, SEB-Stiftelsen and Stefan Persson & family that currently together hold approximately 58% of the shares and votes in ACQ have undertaken to vote in favor of the Transaction at the extraordinary general meeting of ACQ. Further, SEB Funds and Lannebo Funds, that currently together hold approximately 9% of the shares and votes in ACQ, have expressed their intention to vote in favor of the Transaction at the extraordinary general meeting of ACQ. Approval of the Transaction, including the joint merger plan, requires support by at least two-thirds of the votes cast and the shares represented at the general meeting.

Shareholders of Yubico representing more than 80% of the total outstanding shares of Yubico are either parties to the merger agreement entered into by ACQ and Yubico or have by other means approved and committed to support the Transaction. Pursuant to a customary drag-along provision under the existing shareholders' agreement amongst each of the shareholders of Yubico, the remaining shareholders of Yubico will be deemed to have consented to the Transaction and are expected to appoint a proxy, to vote on their behalf at the extraordinary general meeting of Yubico, without any further action on their part.

Redemption of shares

In accordance with the Rulebook and ACQ's articles of association, shareholders in ACQ may request to redeem their shares in ACQ in connection with the Transaction, subject to certain conditions and limitations. Not more than 10% of the total number of shares issued by ACQ at the time of the extraordinary general meeting that is to resolve upon the Transaction may be redeemed. Requests to redeem shares may be made by shareholders who (i) voted against the proposal to approve the Transaction at the extraordinary general meeting, and (ii) are not included in the group of persons who are prevented from requesting redemption of shares according to the Rulebook (among others, ACQ's board of directors and members of the executive management and their related parties). Shareholders are only entitled to request and have their shares redeemed in respect of all their shares in ACQ. If more shares are requested for redemption than can be redeemed pursuant to the provisions of the articles of association, or if the number of shares requested to be redeemed exceeds 10% of the total number of shares issued by ACQ at the date of the general meeting, distribution of the number of shares to be redeemed shall be made in proportion to the number of shares that each shareholder has requested for redemption at the end of the request period. To the extent that the distribution as set forth above does not go out evenly, further distribution shall take place by drawing of lots. Additional instructions regarding the redemption of shares will be available in the information brochure together with more information on Yubico and the proposed Transaction that will be published on ACQ's website on or about 30 May 2023.

Potential directed share issues in ACQ

In order to achieve a suitable cash position in the Combined Company, depending on the outcome of the share redemption procedure, and to secure its obligation to effect cash payments to Ineligible Foreign Holders in connection with the Transaction, ACQ intends to resolve upon one or several directed share issues at a time or times of its choosing. Such directed issues will, if implemented, be carried out through accelerated book building processes.
