CEO COMMENT

2022 was an eventful year on global equity markets. Unlike the positive development in 2021, 2022 will be remembered as one of the worst years for financial markets in two decades. War in Europe, rising interest rates, rampant inflation, sky-high electricity prices, fluctuating currencies and China under lockdown. These headwinds caused the Stockholm stock exchange to fall 22.8 per cent in 2022. However, there was a turnaround in September. The SIX RX rose by 11.3 per cent in the fourth quarter.

The interest rate situation changed markedly during the year. The Riksbank's main policy rate started the year at zero per cent and ended the year at 2.5 per cent. This offered ACQ the opportunity to obtain a return on its cash and cash equivalents. Having been granted an exemption from the Nasdaq OMX exchange, the majority of ACQ's liquid assets were moved from a blocked bank account to Swedish government bills. The resulting interest earned effectively covered ACQ's management costs for the year.

The far-reaching market changes also affected prospects for ACQ. During the year, a number of interesting potential acquisitions were reviewed and discussed. As we look back at 2022, we note that it took time for buyers and sellers to reach agreement when companies' performance and valuation multiples fluctuate significantly.

This report is a translation of the Swedish report. In the event of any differences between this translation and the Swedish original, the Swedish report shall have precedence.

DESCRIPTION OF ACQ

ACQ is an acquisition company established on the initiative of Bure Equity AB on October 26, 2020. ACQ was listed on the Nasdaq Stockholm on March 25, 2021 and raised SEK 3.5 billion in conjunction with the listing.

Within 36 months from the time of the listing, ACQ aims to acquire a Nordic, sustainable quality company valued at SEK 3–7 billion, with good opportunities to create strong shareholder returns through value-creating initiatives and long-term commitment.

ACQ intends to acquire 100 per cent of the target company but may, at the same time, offer the previous owners and management the opportunity to reinvest in ACQ. In the first instance, available liquidity in the form of cash will be used to finance the acquisition. Depending on the financing needs at the time of the acquisition, the Board will also evaluate alternative sources of financing such as debt financing and/or raise additional equity.

Bure Equity is a so-called sponsor of ACQ and owns 20 per cent of its shares after the listing and intends to also be a long-term principal owner of the company that ACQ acquires. Bure also holds 4.2 million stock options in ACQ. As a sponsor, Bure provides services from its investment organization to assist ACQ in identifying, evaluating, and acquiring a target company. ACQ's Board of Directors acts as an investment committee and decides whether or not to enter into an acquisition agreement. If a decision is made to enter into an agreement on an acquisition, the Board will also convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of ACQ where a decision will be made on whether the acquisition is to be made.

The ACQ management team consists of Henrik Blomquist, Bure CEO, who has been appointed CEO on a consulting basis; Max Jonson, Bure Equity CFO, who has been appointed CFO on a consulting basis; and Johan Hähnel, CEO of Comir, who has been appointed IR manager on a consulting basis. The management team heads investment activities, ACQ's board decides to recommend an investment, and ACQ shareholders decide whether an investment is to be carried out on given terms at a general meeting. The ACQ board consists of Patrik Tigerschiöld, (also chairman of Bure), and Caroline af Ugglas, Katarina Bonde, Sarah McPhee (boardmember Bure), and Eola Änggård Runsten.

ADVANTAGES OF ACQ:

For investors

ACQ offers institutional and private investors, together with an experienced investment organization, the opportunity to invest in an unlisted company in a transparent, listed environment. The model thereby makes it possible for institutional investors on the stock exchange and the general public to invest in companies that they would not normally be able to invest in.

For target companies

Through ACQ, target companies gain a new long-term principal owner with extensive experience of value-creating company development in agreement with other owners. ACQ also gives companies an opportunity to raise capital, which can be used, for example, to accelerate growth or broaden product offerings. For the acquired company, ACQ offers access to a listed environment, and thus access to Swedish and international capital markets, which can promote the target company's continued growth and development, increase awareness of the company and strengthen its brand awareness.

For sellers

For sellers who are considering a traditional IPO, a sale to ACQ represents an opportunity to directly divest an entire holding, a degree of flexibility that is not normally found in a conventional IPO. A sale to ACQ also offers a simpler and more transparent process.

For sellers who are considering a private sale or a traditional listing process, this creates a sales process in which ACQ offers an opportunity to expose a planned sales process through a so-called dual track.

In the event of acquisitions, the target company's management will replace the current management in ACQ and, if necessary, be supplemented with new hires with stock market experience. Bure will, primarily through board representation, continue to support the company as an active owner by assisting management to implement the strategic plan that formed the basis for the acquisition. Activity is intended to be conducted in a similar way to Bure's other portfolio companies, in a collegial climate of co-operation with other board members, owners, and the CEO.

BENEFITS OF ACQ

Furthermore, ACQ offers the opportunity to become listed and to raise capital which can be used to accelerate growth through, for example, geographic expansion or investments in product development to expand the company's offering.

TRANSACTION SECURITY

A divestment to ACQ means a less complex, faster, more certain and more cost-effective process for the seller. Furthermore, a sale to ACQ also means an opportunity to divest the entire holding directly which is not usually possible in a traditional IPO.

ACCESS TO BENEFITS AS A LISTED COMPANY

By selling to ACQ, the target company also gains access to the Swedish and international capital markets, which can further promote the target company's continued growth and development, increase awareness of the target company and strengthen its brand.

YEAR-END REPORT

JANUARY– DECEMBER 2022

Due to ACQ being an acquisition company, it does not generate any income except from income earned as interest on cash and cash equivalents. The company's assets mainly consist of cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments that have been deposited in an account and a depository at SEB and which will be used to finance future acquisitions. In addition, cash and cash equivalents have been allocated to finance the operation of the company as well as costs arising from the evaluation of acquisition opportunities. This means that the company is expected to generate negative results until an acquisition is completed.

RESULTS FOR THE PERIOD 1 JANUARY – 31 DECEMBER 2022

Operating profit was SEK -15.5M (-7.3).

Net financial items were SEK 14.7M (0,0).

Profit after tax was SEK -0.8M (-7.3).

RESULTS FOR THE PERIOD 1 OCTOBER – 31 DECEMBER 2022

Operating profit was SEK -5.2M (-2.6).

Net financial items were SEK 11.4M (0.0).

Profit after tax was SEK 6.1M (-2.6)

FINANCIAL POSITION

Equity at the end of the period amounted to SEK 3,439.0M (3,439.8) and the equity to asset ratio was 100 per cent (100). At the end of the period, the company had a reported net receivable of SEK 3,425.8M (3,441.4), which consisted of interest-bearing assets of SEK 3,425.8M (3,441.4) and interest-bearing liabilities of SEK 0.0M (0.0). At the end of the period, the company's equity per share amounted to SEK 98.3 (98.3).

INVESTMENTS IN SWEDISH TREASURY BILLS AND GOVERNMENT BONDS

In the prospectus that ACQ Bure published for its listing and public offering, ACQ Bure stated that at least 90 per cent of the proceeds of the share issue would be held in a blocked SEB account. According to the instruction on blocked accounts that ACQ Bure provided to SEB, ACQ Bure retains the right to access blocked funds only when certain conditions are met, such as that a share transfer agreement has been entered into regarding acquisitions that are intended to be carried out where the purchase price must amount to at least 80 per cent of the deposited amount, and that shareholders have approved such an acquisition at a general meeting.

The conditions for the SEB deposit account mean that ACQ Bure did not receive any interest on deposited funds. In the wake of rapidly rising inflation in recent months, Sweden's Riksbank has hiked the base rate on several occasions at the same time as it has reduced the pace of bond purchases. This has resulted in the yield on Swedish government securities increasing rapidly in recent months.

ACQ Bure has been granted an exemption by Nasdaq Stockholm from the rule for SPACs, (rule 2.18.2 in the Nordic Main Market Rulebook for Issuers of Shares), that deposited funds must be held in a blocked bank account. Furthermore, ACQ Bure has received approval that these funds may be invested in short- and long-term Swedish government bonds.

In light of the above, the board of ACQ Bure believed that a reallocation of deposited funds was in the interests of shareholders. In August 2022, cash and cash equivalents amounting to SEK 3,132M were moved from a blocked bank account at SEB into short-term Swedish government bonds. The bonds are held in a depository at SEB which is blocked under the same terms and conditions as the blocked bank account.

ACQ Bure believes that an investment in Swedish short- and long-term government bonds offers lower risk than investing in a bank account. SEB's credit rating according to S&P Global is currently A and A3 according to Moody's. The Swedish government currently has a credit rating of AAA according to S&P Global and Aa3 according to Moody's. In summary, an investment in government bonds is associated with reduced counterparty risk and increased security for the company's shareholders. The high degree of liquidity offered by short- and long-term government bonds avoids the creation of obstacles or limitations for the company to liquidate its position in the event of an acquisition.
